

Associate Vice Chancellor for Campus IT and CIO

Administrative IT Solutions Information Services and Technology

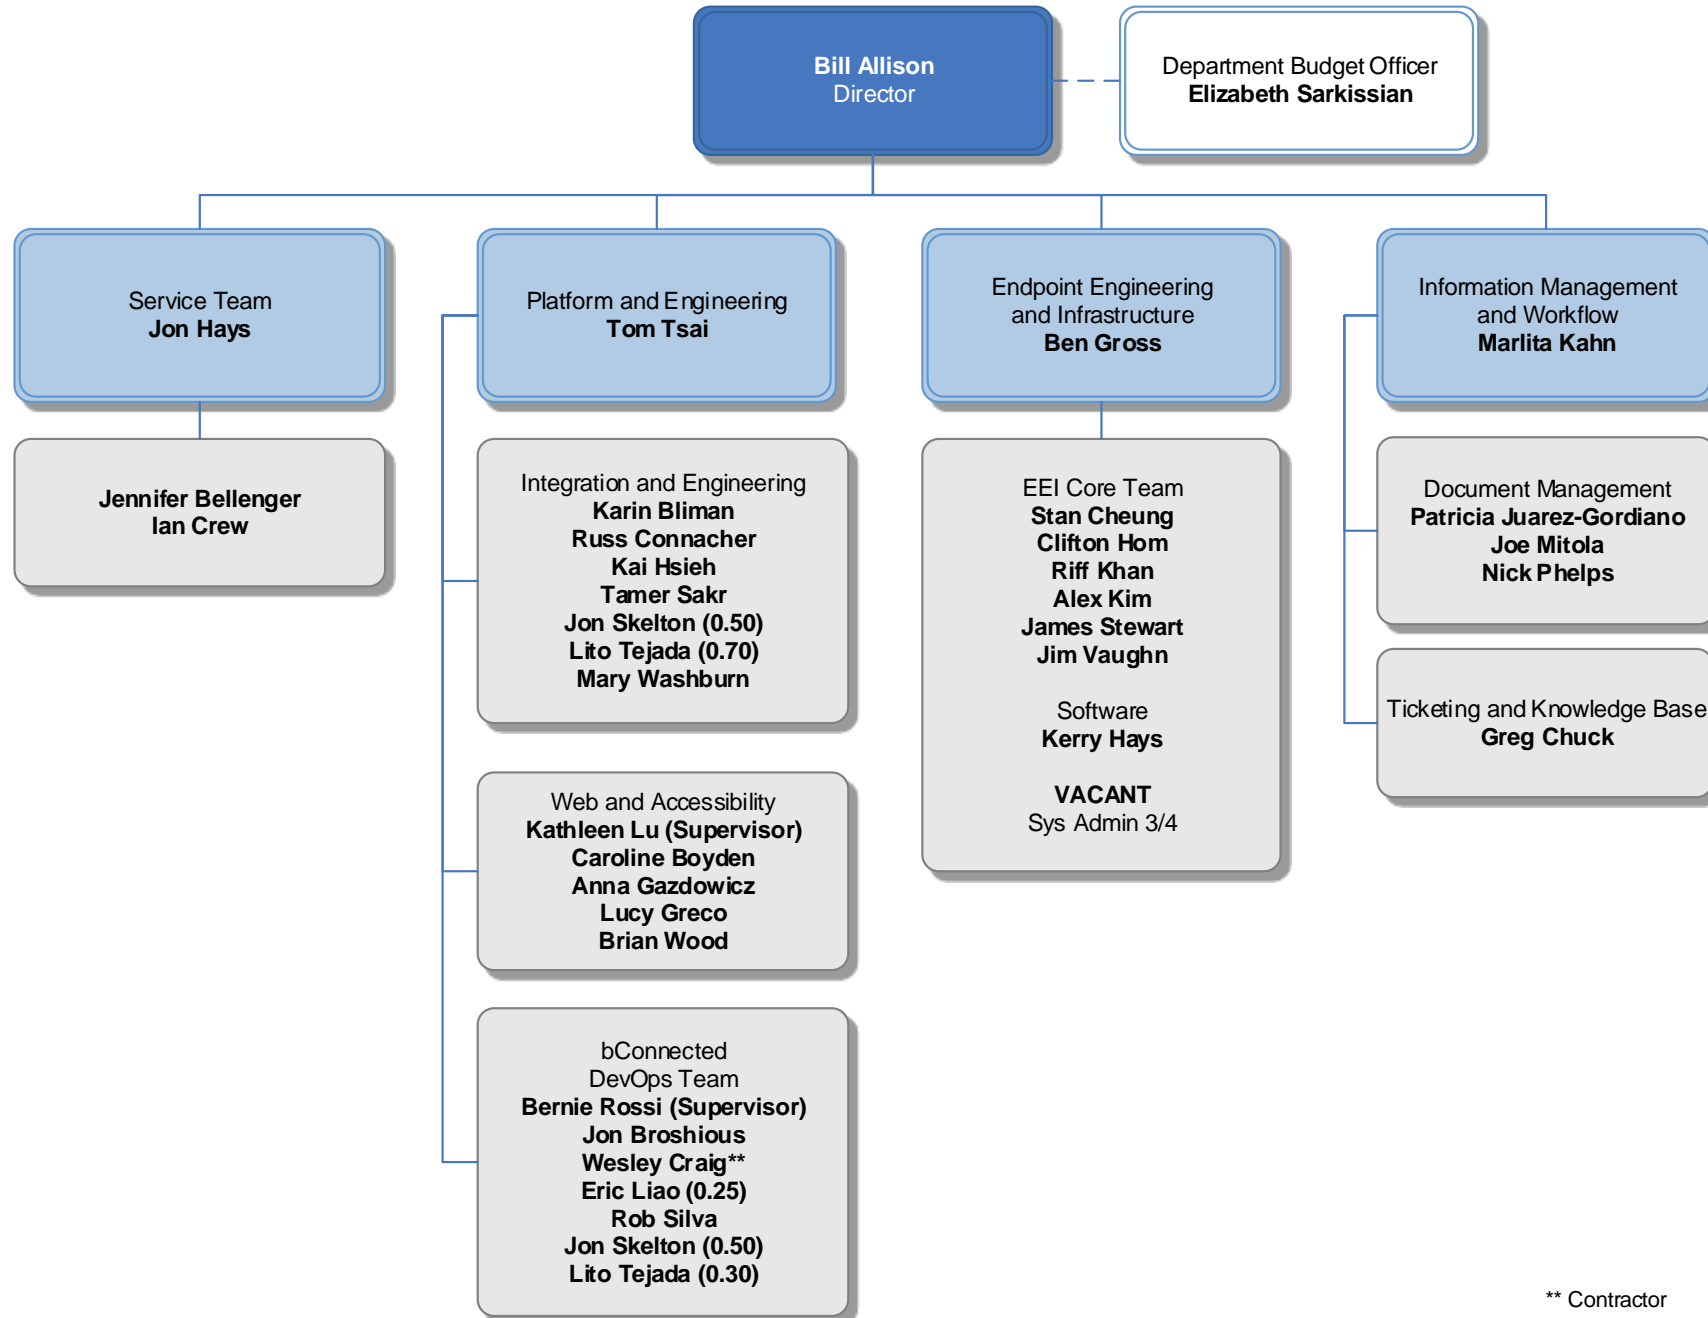

Provides application systems development and best practices for enterprise and unit-specific application software in support of administrative functions, academic functions, and public service.

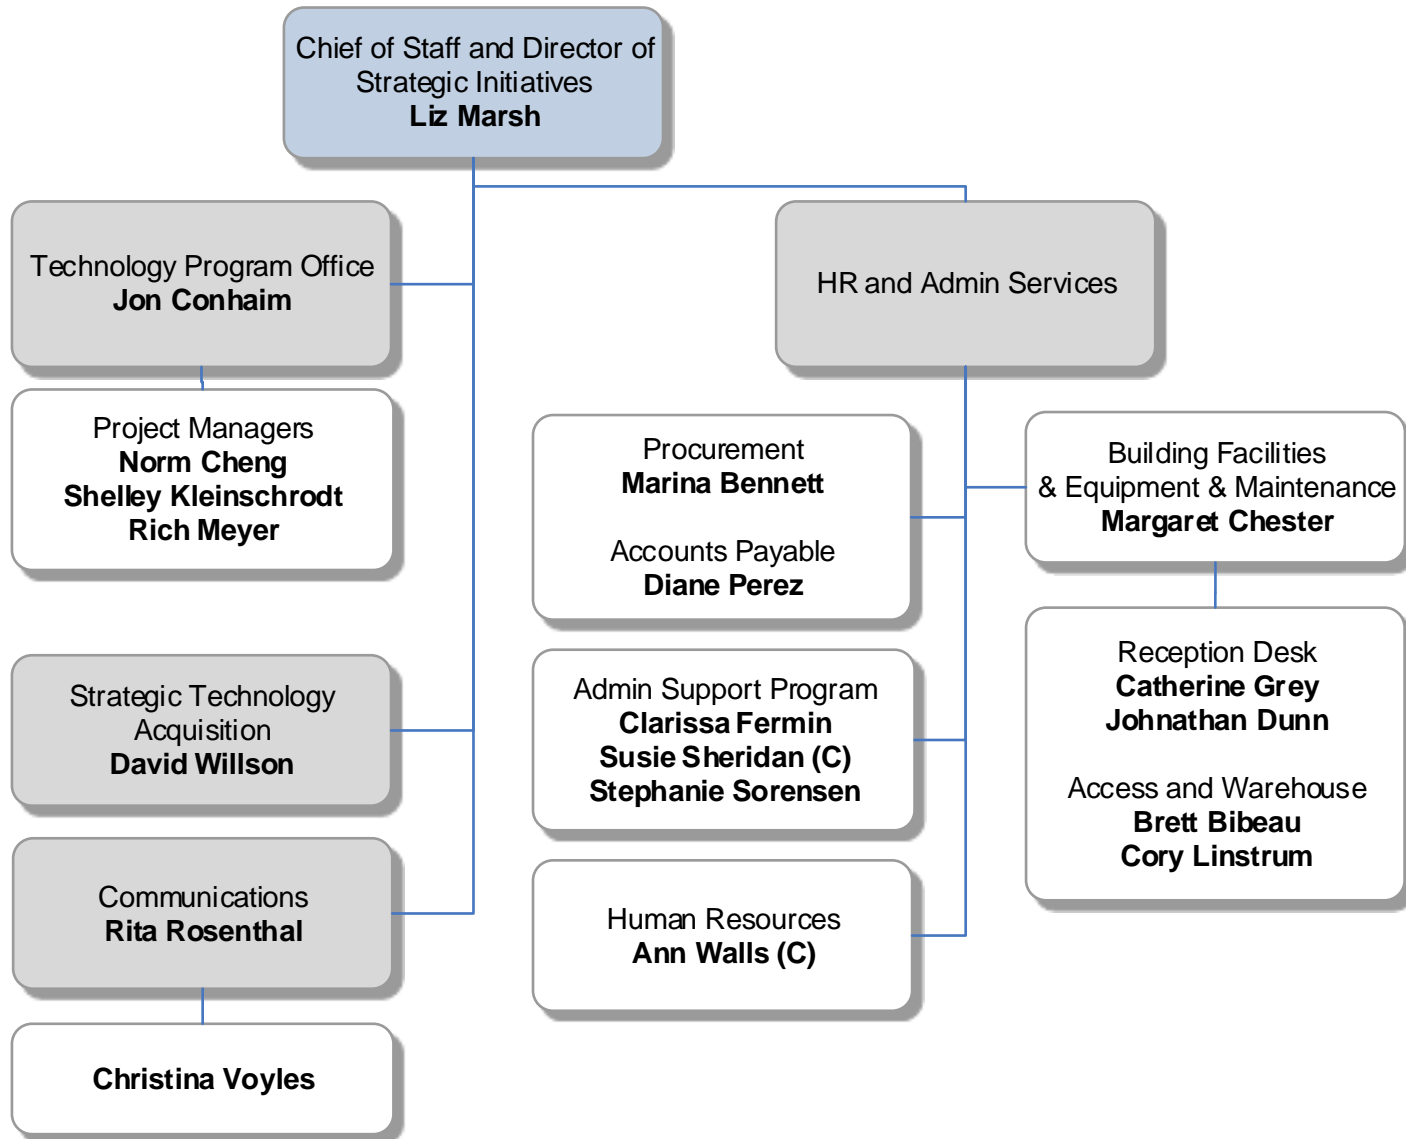

* Contractor
 (L) Lead in Area
 (T/C) Training/Communication
 Report to Another Area (Telecom)

Architecture, Platforms and Integration Information Services and Technology

Works with individual customers and departments to meet customer needs, providing expert assistance and service management.

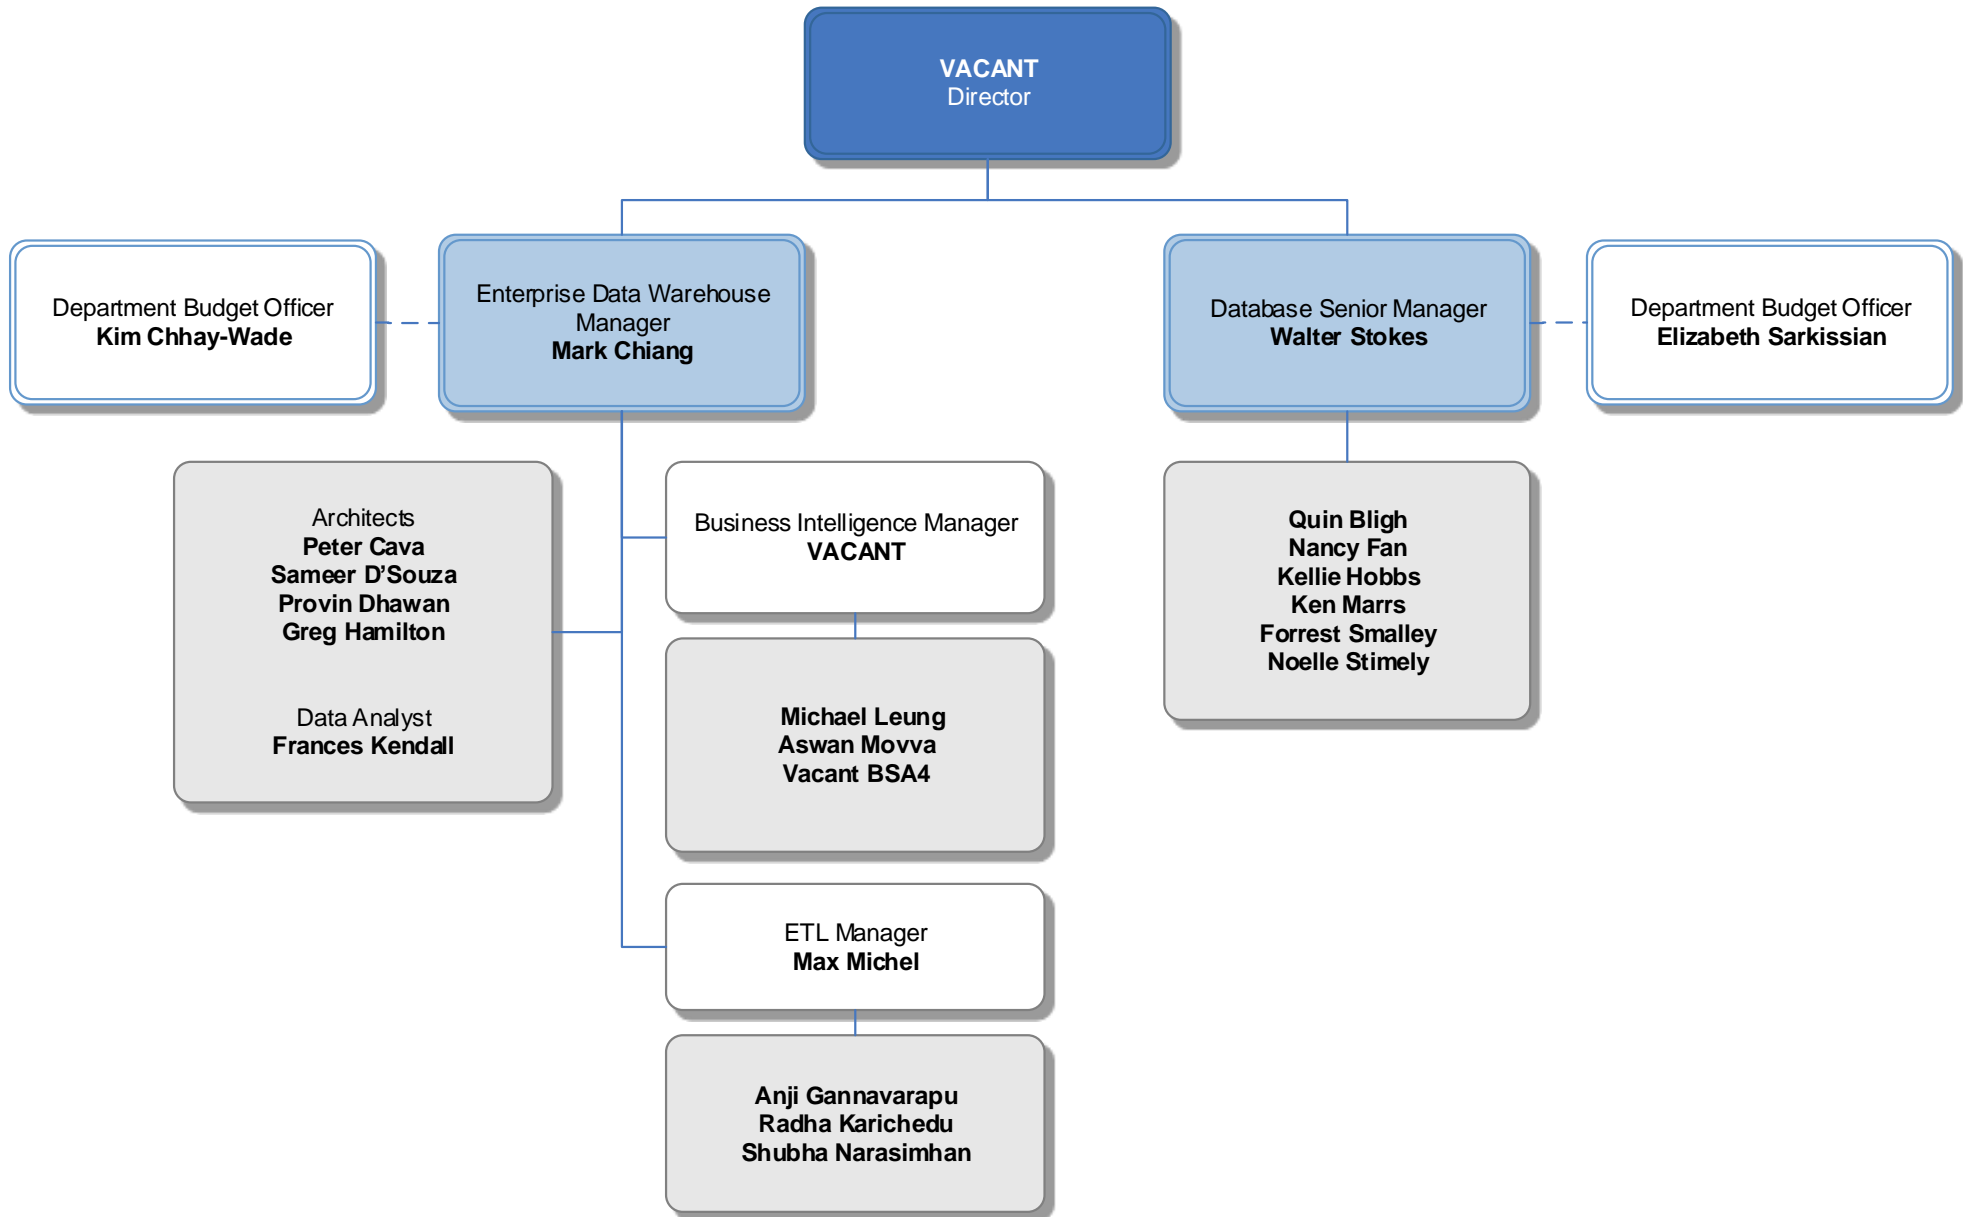

Office of the Chief of Staff and Strategic Initiatives

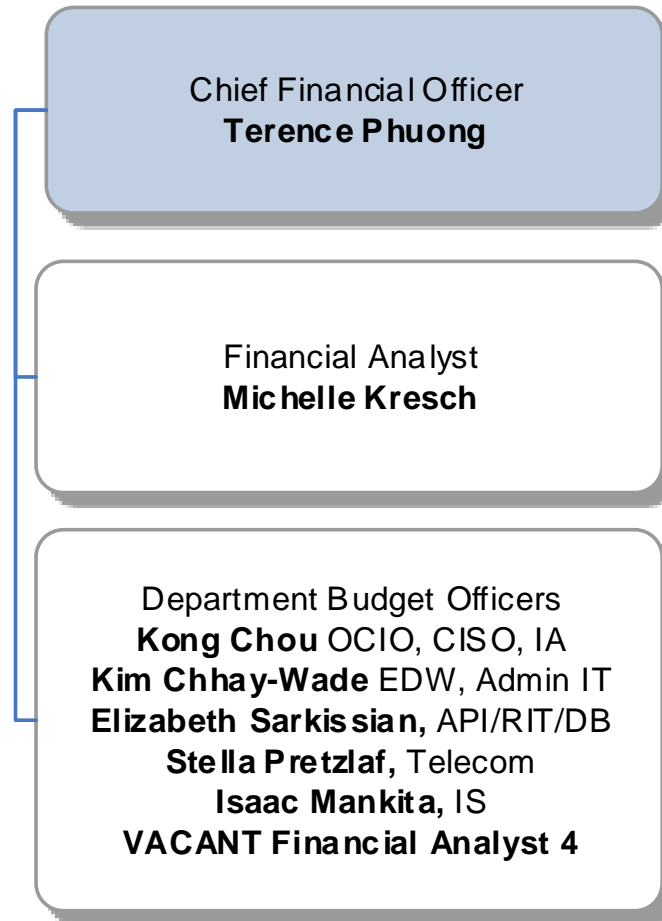

Enterprise Data

Provides focus on database services, enterprise data warehouse, and CalNet authentication and authorization.

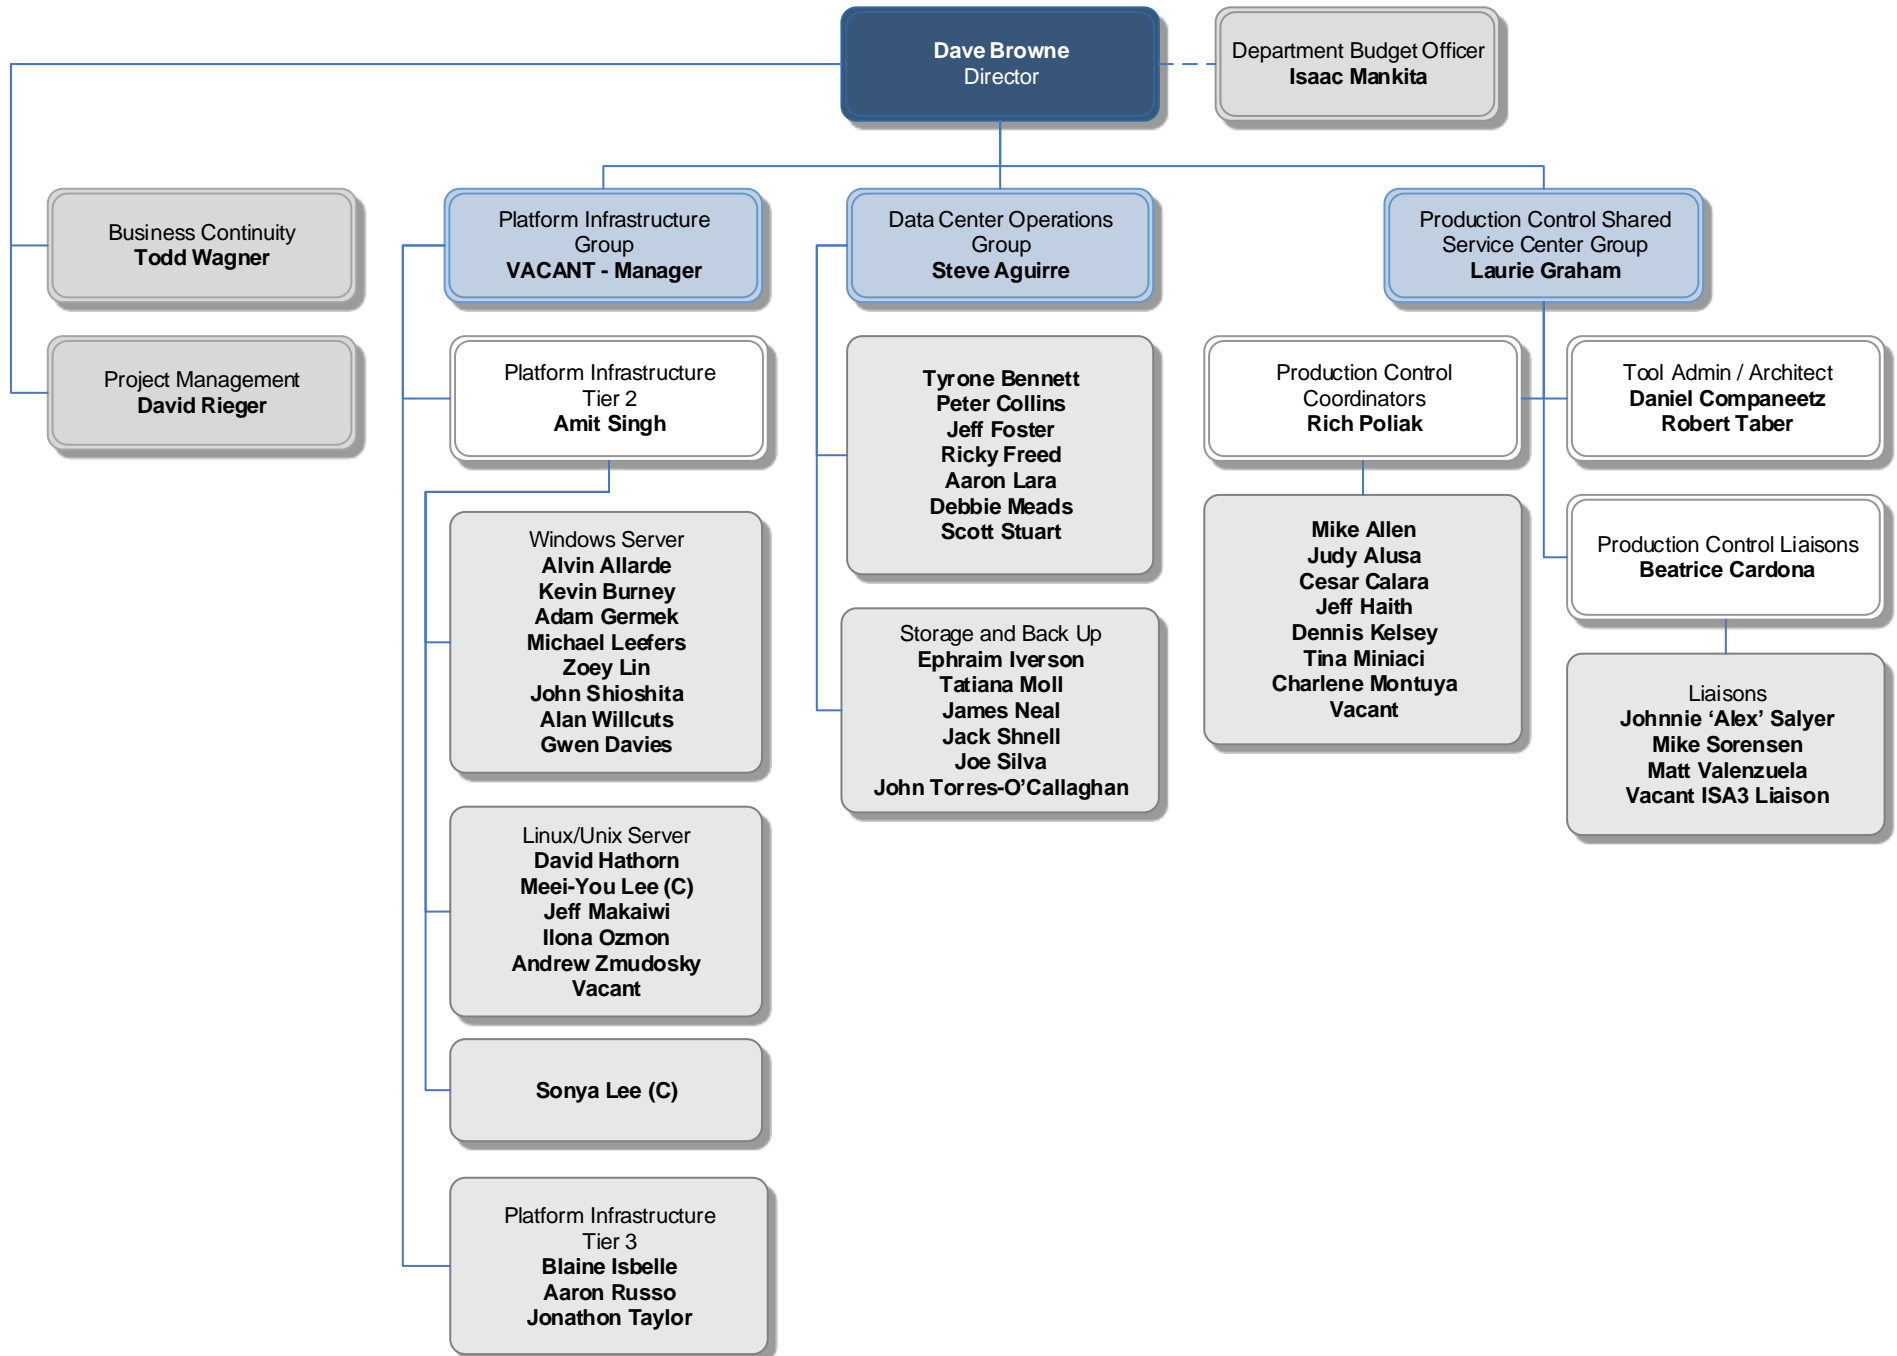

Finance

Provides support for OCIO/IST with budgeting, financial management, review services, HR needs and building management support.

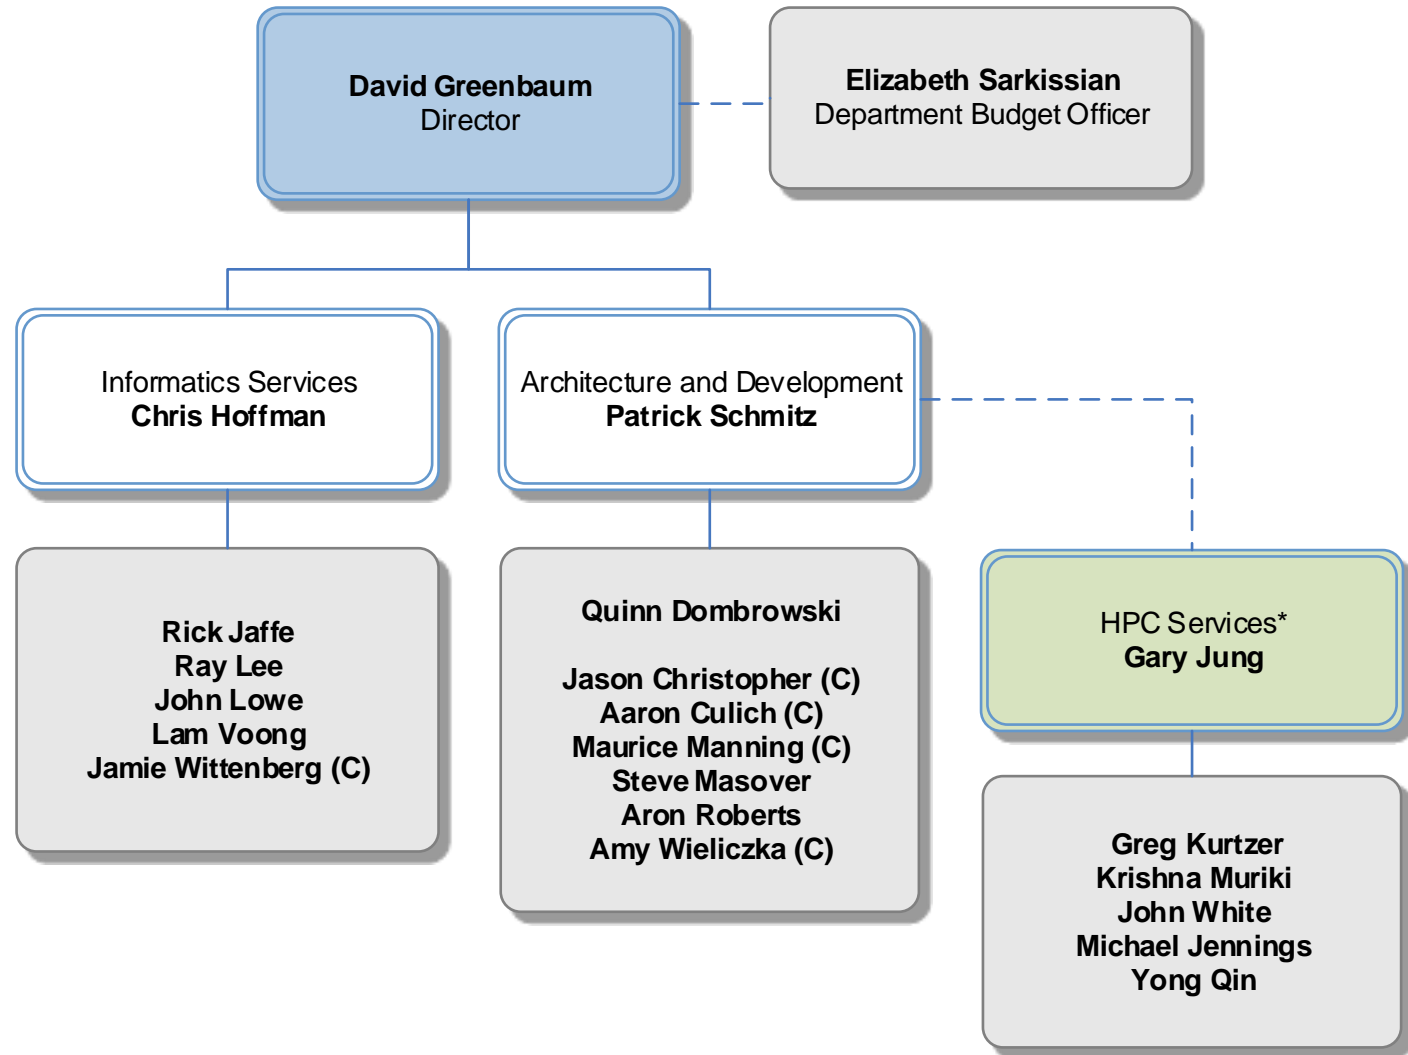

Infrastructure Services

Provides core infrastructure technology services to the campus, a common, reliable, standards-based technical environment, and cyber-infrastructure for research and education.

Research Information Technologies

Provides focus on research tools and faculty concerns, and content management technologies for administrative and academic uses.

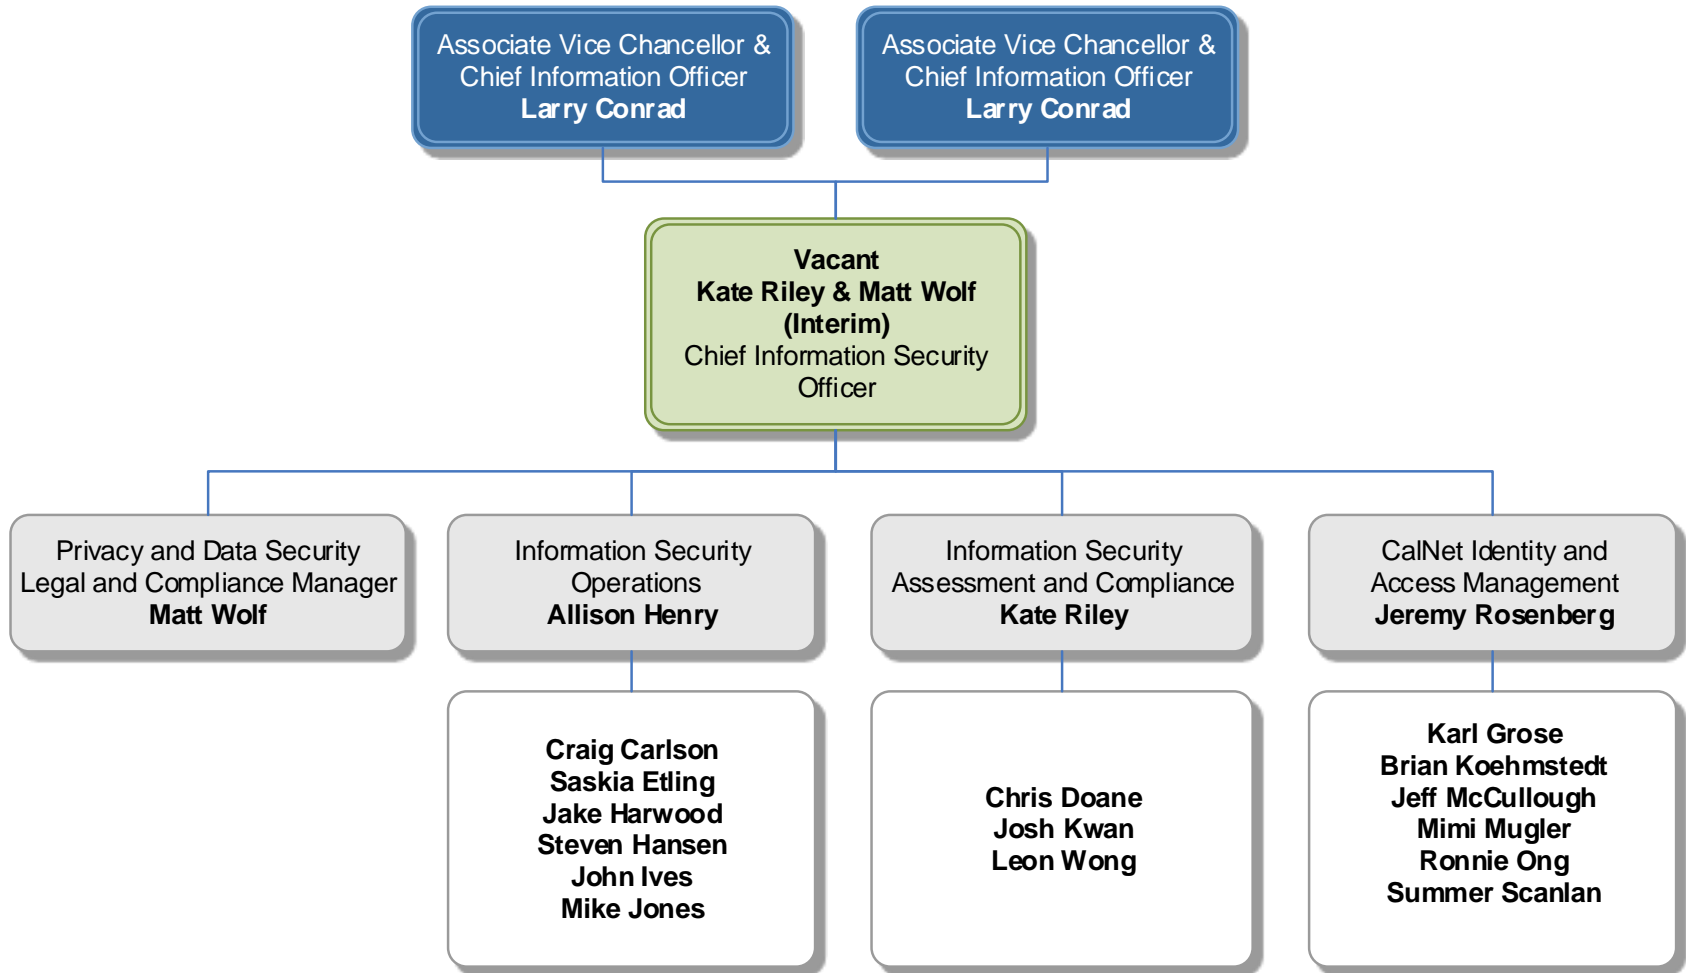

C-Contract

*HPC Services Team: part time under
MLA with LBNL

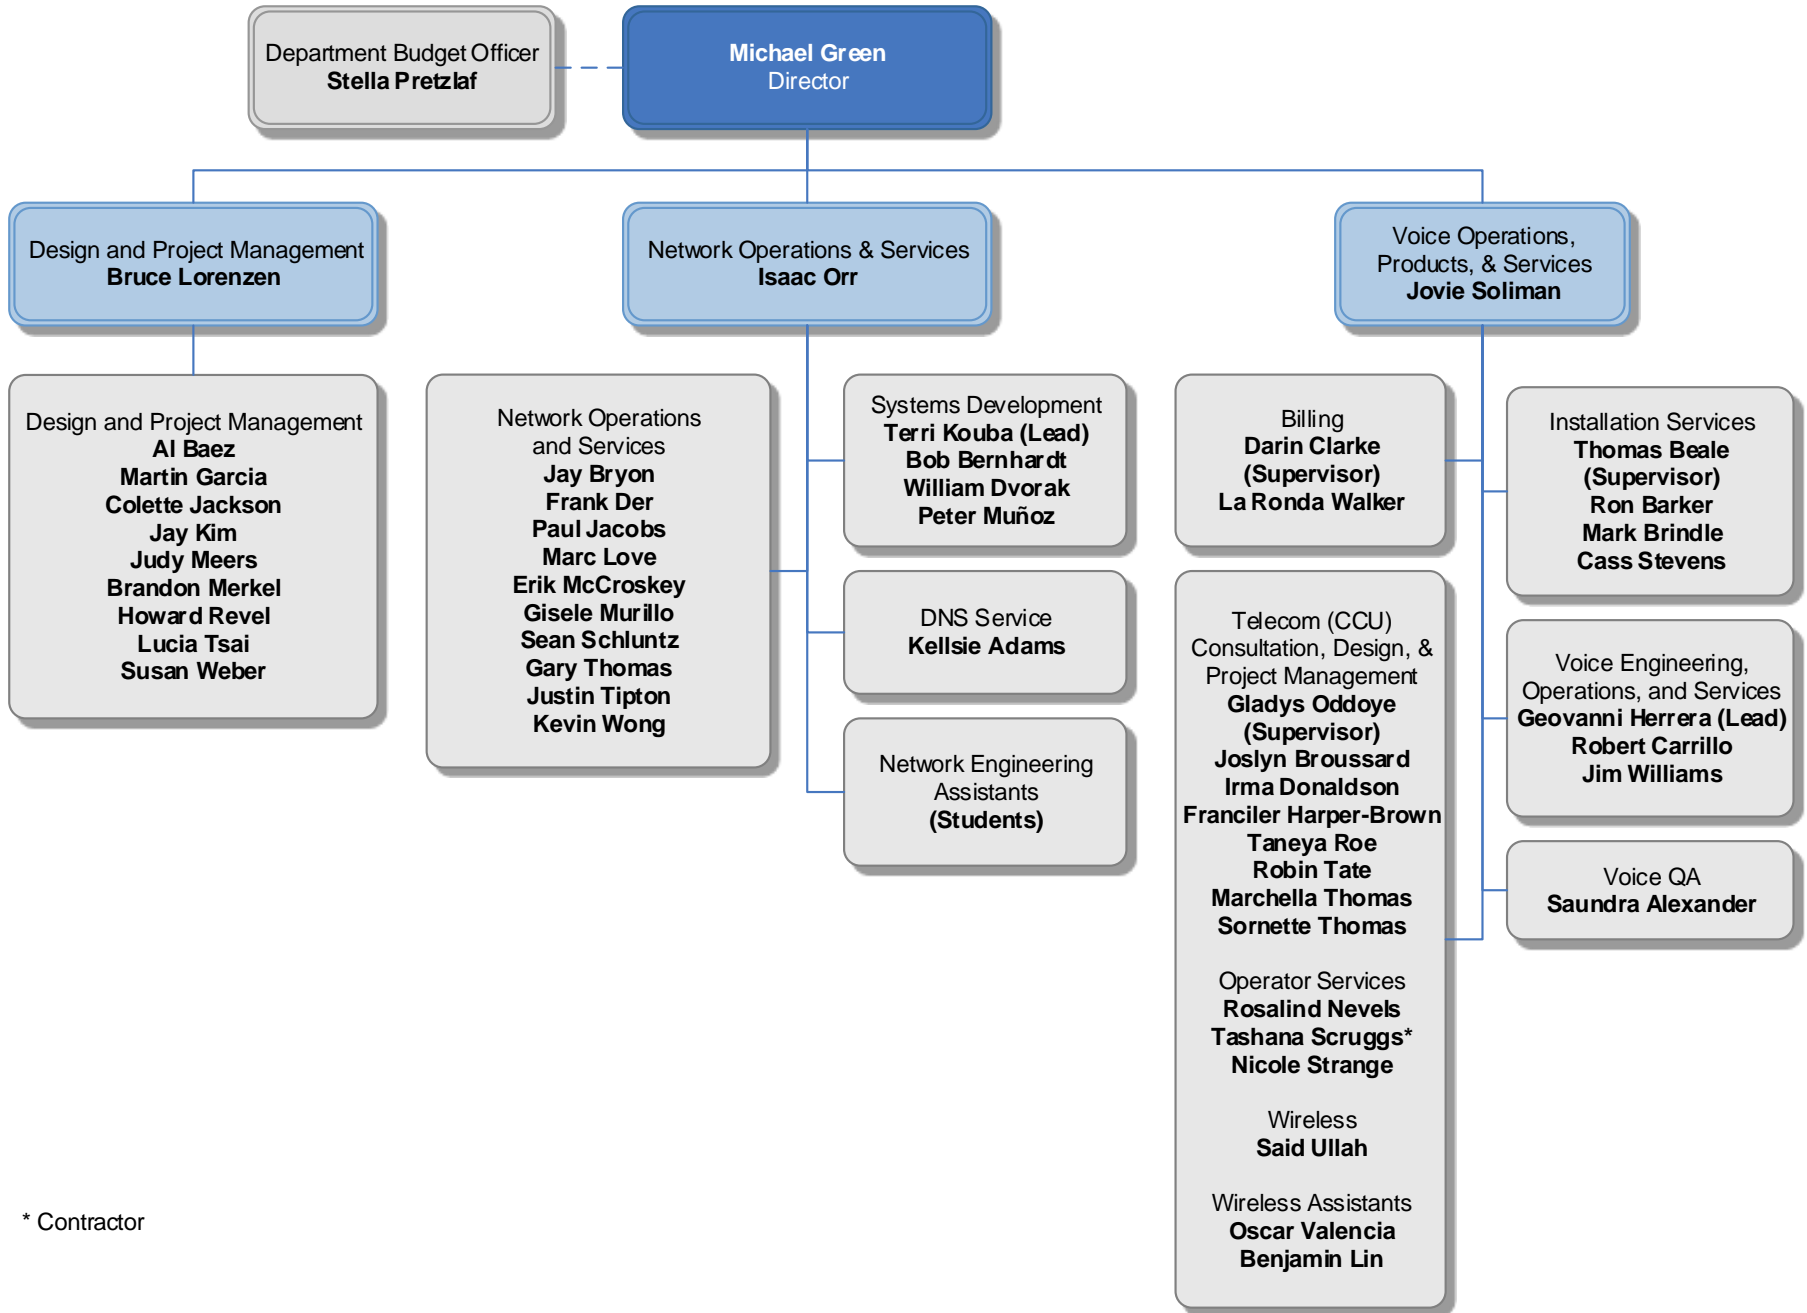

Information Security and Policy Team OCIO

Provides policy and security oversight for institutional information and campus IT resources through the Information Security and Policy department, providing a structured approach to information risk management for the campus.

Telecommunications

Provides voice and data infrastructure and service, determines standards and best practices for infrastructure development within IST, promotes compatible standards and best practices across campus IT infrastructure groups, and develops reusable components for use in infrastructure solutions.

* Contractor